

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND:
"IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE"

by lee roscoe

BASED ON THE SINCLAIR LEWIS NOVEL

July 29, 2006 8 PM
Studio Theater, Tilden Arts Center
Cape Cod Community College

TO BENEFIT
INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE FOR THE US CONGRESS
PETER WHITE

Suggested contribution of $25 to One hundred dollars (or what you can afford).

Tickets go on sale at 7 PM

Reservations at 508-896-9877 or email peteowl@aol.com

FEATURING: LARRY MARSLAND, PETER WHITE, PENNY BENSON, SEAN BENNET, CHIRS KING, CARL SCHWABER, ROB SILVERBERG
& BOB SEAVER with Phil Fetzter and Dan Corrigan

The play, based on a novel by Sinclair Lewis, takes place in the 1930s in Vermont. It is a prescient and moving story about a New England newsman and his loved ones, beleaguered by an increasingly authoritarian government.

Sinclair Lewis directed at the Wharf Theater in Provincetown in the 1930s.

PETER WHITE WILL MODERATE A DISCUSSION AFTER THE PLAY: FASCISM: DRAMA OR REALITY?